Those traveling; those in recovery and those still suffering from addictions and mental illness; the homeless; those who are homebound or living in nursing homes, especially the Denali Center & Pioneer Home; and all those grieving.

We have "Wheat free" communion wafers, made with soy flour and water (containing no gluten, wheat, dairy, eggs, sugar, nuts, nor corn). If you prefer to receive a wheat-free wafer, pick up one of the colored stones on the choir stalls and present at the altar rail.

Lord, give us the grace to put ourselves in other people's places, to see ourselves as others see us. Save us from strife that comes from self-will or lack of understanding, and help us to seek a way to work together for the rights and liberties of all in responsible community life and service. As you are the Father of us all, so let us live as members of one family in mutual consideration and concern for love of you.
